SOCIETY

A meeting has been called for the Ladies Aid society of the Methodist church at the parsonage next Wednesday afternoon to transact important business.

Fort Pierce Lodge No. 87, F. & A. M. will give a banquet to all its members and visiting members and their wives next Thursday, December 27, St. John's Day at 9 p. m., at the Fort Pierce Hotel. These annual banquets are always the source of much enjoyment to those who are fortunate enough to attend.

The sitting room of the Improvement club house is now open every day and is free to the public, and all are cordially invited to use it whenever convenient, as well as all reading matter. Remember this is absolutely free and no compensation is required. However, to become a member of the Library club, with the privilege of taking books home, ten cents a month will be charged. But it costs nothing to use the sitting room or read the books in the library.

A jolly party composed of Misses Sara Best, Janie Rice, Manerva Robey, Annie Veitch, — Watkins, Messrs. Wm. I. Fee, Louis Fritz, Wilson Godfrey, Lee Faber and Paul Watkins, chaperoned by Mrs. L. Arthur Jennings enjoyed a pleasant ride on the river Sunday afternoon. They visited the inlet and house of refuge, and on the return trip inspected the oyster beds and shoals near the banks of the river. It seems the shoals and sand bars proved very fascinating and several hours were spent in trying to get away from them. All the young men—except one—worked their passage and proved that their muscles were good and hard. They finally reached home after dark—tired but happy.

The little son of E. M. Stokes of Roseland, accidentally killed his little sister Friday. He was playing with an old rusty revolver, which he did not know was loaded and pulled the trigger. The bullet struck the little girl just behind the ear killing her instantly. The body was taken to Melbourne for interment.

The latest rough-surface portrait papers and the swellest flexible mounts and art folders now offered by the Florida Photographic Concern, promises to distinguish the portrait department of this institution to an extent almost equal to that of its view work, which has become decidedly the most popular of any line in Florida.
